

2019 Renewal Revisited

These photos are just a glimpse into the Renewal weekend held at Grace Covenant Church in Fargo in March of 2019. There are always more images, memories, and thoughts to bring home than we can show in a few pictures...It was a weekend of retreat, refreshment, reacquaintance and renewal.

Fellowship

The thing I loved about Renewal (2019)

The fellowship times were wonderful to meet new people

Community of women with shared faith, seeking renewal and fellowship

The break out session choices were good.

The worship music was awesome, setting our hearts to honor Him while remembering who He is and what He has done for us

All the guys helping out--Thank you!!!

Speaker was good & challenging

The music and praise time was uplifting and powerful.

*The mission vendors! We are so wealthy.
How can we use this wealth from God to empower women around the globe!! Love this*

Time for worship with music

Communion

Love the singing and worship--worship team is wonderful-thank you!

The hospitality

Michelle Sanchez

The format of back to back workshops worked well

Michelle was terrific! Excellent speaker and speaking voice and beautiful content!

Nice marketplace this year

Speaker was great

Top notch vendor tables

The break out sessions

The schedule Saturday morning--worship, both breakout sessions

The speaker taught great practical ways to be a disciplemaker-- the point being that she developed her theme well-- it applied to all that were present

Very organized worship, annual meeting

Michelle Sanchez-voice is wonderful, offers the group "acceptance" and encouraging-very good message-- the love radiates from her.

The "business" meeting was well done

Our speaker and the music

I liked the interviews...it kept everyone on track

Lunch was quick and good--left time for fellowship and shopping, etc.

I liked everything---well done

Renewal 2020

will be held March 13-14

at First Covenant Church, River Falls Wisconsin

Why not plan a retreat for the women of your church around the Renewal date? We provide a great speaker and interesting break-out sessions to choose from---your women have bonding and fellowship on the car ride over, in sessions, and in the overnight at the hotel. It's a win-win for both! More information will be coming soon!
